35 Steps Bistro

03

35 steps bistro is a casual but cozy, always busy izakaya with an amazing price quality ratio. The place itself is very Japanese, whereas food ranges from traditional to modern Japanese cuisine with western influence, so you will definitely find something you like. An additional plus, 35 steps bistro has space for bigger groups and an English menu.

The shop's original plum wine is easy to drink and delicious.

POPULAR MENU

- Juicy beef and potato stew
- Tender prawns with chilli mayo sauce

Sangyodo

05

What makes Sangyodo special is definitely its staff, which is different from most of the izakayas in Tokyo, all over 50 and incredibly friendly (: They serve Japanese traditional food, a wide range of seafood and even have some vegetarian (if you are allergic you should confirm) options. The place itself is small but modern and comfortable.

POPULAR MENU

- Assorted sashimi
- Simmered yellowtail and radish
- Octopus with miso
- Recommended Sake

Try the sake, named Sangyo-do like the restaurant.

Fresh sashimi!

Shibuya Sanshin 09

Enjoy food like in a Japanese ryokan: seasonal, traditional, beautiful, special. We definitely recommend you to try a course here to fully experience the beauty of Japanese food. The design of the place itself is just as the food, elegant Japanese, and Sanshin's staff is friendly and professional, so feel free to consider your food preferences or allergies with them.

POPULAR MENU

- Course menu
- Sake
- Lemon sour

A colourful and appetizing range of dishes.

10 Sake Fun Zokkon

A place where you can enjoy sake and fitting Japanese food in a really traditional way. Even if you are not into Japanese sake, the beginner friendly structured menu makes it easy to choose. Since portions are small, we recommend it for snacking rather than having a full meal.

POPULAR MENU

- Potato salad
- Pickled firefly squid
- Seasonal rice dish
- Sake

Potato salad is made with less mayonnaise than usual.

Super fresh and exquisitely seasoned firefly squid!
